Reciprocal Mentoring

Edited By Julie Haddock-Millar, Paul Stokes, Nora Dominguez

Reciprocal mentoring represents an approach to mentoring in organisations that is both timely and of critical importance in the context of diversity, inclusion, equity and the power shift in mentoring practice. This book provides insight into how reciprocal mentoring programmes can strengthen mutual learning and encourage true partnership between participants. It explores the design, development and evaluation of these programmes in six different contexts: entrepreneurial, healthcare sector, third sector, education sector, private sector and membership organisations.
