GUEST SPEAKERS

Larissa Thurlow, PCC

Larissa Thurlow has been a Learning and Development professional for over 25 years. Recognizing that teams are a crucial part of working and organizational life and they can also be a source of challenges, frustrations and opportunities, she attended AoEC Systemic Team Coaching Training in the UK in 2013 and began to use the High Performance Team Coaching Model (Carr and Peters, 2013). Since that time, she has also completed Systemic Team Coaching Training with Peter Hawkins and the Organizational Systems and Relationship Systems (ORSC) training from CRR Global.

Larissa has extensive education (Masters in Distance Education) and experience (ICF PCC, EMCC Senior Practitioner; faculty member of Mount Royal University Integrative Health Coaching program, member of CRR Global faculty) in coach training, coach mentoring and coach supervision (ESIA pending). Larissa is an active member of the Global Supervisor's Network (GSN) and the Americas Coaching Supervision Network (ACSN). She co-leads the newly formed ACSN Team Coaching Supervision Community of Practice. Her experience extends across cultures and continents from the Americas, Europe and Asia to Australia, Africa and the Middle East and from non-profits to Silicon Valley start-ups. In the spirit of respect, reciprocity and reconciliation, she honours and acknowledges that she lives, works and plays on the traditional territories of the Blackfoot Confederacy and all people who make their homes in the Treaty 7 region of Southern Alberta.

Traci Manalani, PCC

Traci offers Super-Vision to coaches in both group and one-to-one formats. Mindfully, she establishes a reflective space that enables co-creation and collaboration for systemic learning. Traci's specialisation with super-vision is with team coaches as she has extensive experience and training as a team coach.

Traci is certified as a Professional Coach (PCC) through ICF having completed two accredited coach certification programs: evidence-based coaching (EBC) through Fielding Graduate University, and organization and relationship systems coaching (ORSC) through CRR Global. Traci's ORSC approach creates more cohesive teams and strengthens understanding that leads to strategic and sustainable solutions at a leveraged scale. Her EBC approach enables her to utilize strategies from a broad range of coaching theories to meet clients where they are in their development.

Traci also has completed extensive EMCC training that includes two of Damian Goldvarg's Coach Supervision programmes and the Global Team Coaching Institute's practitioner programme.

Susie Warman, MCC

Susie Warman is a Master Certified Coach (MCC), Mentor and Accredited Coach Supervisor certified by the EMCC European Supervision Individual Accreditation (ESIA). She is a Sociologist and has a PhD in History specializing in Education.

She has more than 16 years of experience working as an Executive Coach, Leadership Development, Building High Performing Teams and as a Facilitator in Mexico and U.S.A. In addition to individual coaching, Susie is a Global Trainer on topics ranging from: Effective Communication; Change Management; Leadership Skills for Managers; Organizational Culture Change; Effective Team Building; Conflict Management; Strengths Finder; and Emotional Intelligence.

Katherine Holt, PCC

Katherine Holt specializes in transformational coaching, working with executives to achieve breakthrough possibilities for themselves and their businesses. She helps clients build authentic relationships with diverse stakeholders and engage everyone in addressing key challenges. She designs programs to develop leaders who will grow healthy and sustainable organizations as well as high performing ones.

Dr. Holt earned her Ph.D. in Industrial Relations from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota. She served on ASTD's Board of Directors from 2000-2002, then received their lifetime professional service award in 2005 and became one of their first CPLP Fellows in 2012. Her research on global leadership has been published in ASTD T+D magazine as well as SIOP's Industrial-Organizational Psychologist journal.
